Welcome to the premiere of a spectacular: the ALBROKAN staff's production of the true life story of eight hundred and seventy-five students at A. L. Brown High School. This drama combines humor and sadness seen in the lives of the students pictured here. Their little joys and sorrows make up a tale so spellbinding that you will want to see it many times.

Raise the curtain now on this epic—herein you will see yourselves acting a full year of high school life. The lights dim . . .

For his sincere understanding and his untiring efforts to help us become young men and women, we dedicate this 1958 ALBROKAN to our beloved friend and teacher, Mr. EDWIN L. VAN POOLE.

We shall always hold dear to our hearts a fond memory of one who instilled in us the principles of honesty and fair play.

Becky,
I have enjoyed being in the home room all times and remember
I hope we can be in the same class next year.
Love you!

THE SENIOR TAPESTRY

A tapestry woven by ten-score hands—
The threads of each person entwine—
And through it all, the silver and red
Of our Senior Class does shine.

We've woven the black of a heartbreak
With the gleaming threads of our joy,
Mingling with golden Graduation
The rosy love of a girl and boy.

Homecoming, "Deep Purple," Class Night,
Each is woven in its place;
We sprinkle crimson freely—
The trials we now shall face.

Each has woven his own bright threads
A part of the whole they become;
An imperfect thread, a color faded,
Each of our lives has some.

Our tapestry is finished now—
Place it high, before us all;
We need its light above our way
Lest we stumble, lest we fall.

"Ending dreams; beginning reality." Our dreams began when we as freshmen began the school year of 1954-1955 at Cannon Junior High School that September morning as the leaders of the school. In our first year in high school, our class was well-represented in Student Government by R. W. Williams serving as President and Larry Neal as Vice-President. Council members from our class were Phyllis Nelms, Judy Goodman, and Don Honeycutt.

Our Christmas Queen that year was Jean Avant, who was also Queen of the "Fairylane" dance sponsored by the Student Government.

Gaining recognition was Linda Jo Sloop, as the spelling champion of the school, and Louise Cashion, Jean Avant, Linda McKnight, Gail Ross, Kerry Maulden, Gary Carlton, and Jimmy Price, as the top salesmen of the magazine campaign held that spring.

This year sped by quickly. We did not want to leave Cannon, but at the same time we were eager to go to Brown. It seemed a little strange to be on the bottom after being on top at Cannon, but we quickly adjusted to the juniors and seniors, and to the school building. We held dreams of the future and of all the fun we would have.

Our sophomore class adviser was Mr. Rawls. Larry Neal was our capable President. Assisting him were Vice-President R. W. Williams, Secretary Jerry Darnell, and Treasurer Kerry Maulden. Representing our class on the Student Council were Jane Wilson and Don Honeycutt.

To raise money for our class activities, we had a candy sale. The top salesmen were Donnie Livenood, Roy Eddleman, Harold Beets, Barbara Johnson, and Frances McCommons.

Five members of our class were greatly honored by being tapped into the National Honor Society. They were Jane Wilson, Larry Neal, Richard Sellers, R. W. Williams and Jerry Darnell. The Key Club received Don Goodnight, Larry Neal, R. W. Williams and Jerry Darnell into their ranks that year.

In the Student Government elections, rising juniors Larry Neal and R. W. Williams were chosen to fill the offices of Secretary and Treasurer, respectively. Elected as cheerleaders were Larry Cauble and Glenna Goodson.

We moved another step up the ladder leading to our goal of graduation. This dream was always in our minds. As juniors we looked forward to the promises of the future.

Advising us as juniors was Mr. Boone. Elected to lead our class were Jerry Darnell as President, Kerry Maulden as Vice-President, Judy Goodman as Secretary, and Alex Viola as Treasurer. Jane Wilson and Don Honeycutt were our Council representatives.

We started the year off right with a magazine sale; George Noel was the top salesman. Then we successfully undertook the junior class play, "You Can't Take It With You."

As the year blossomed into spring, honors came to members of our class in the form of being tapped into the various clubs. Tapped into the National Honor Society on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service were Frances McCommons, George Noel, Judy Goodman, Linda Jo Sloop, Carole Harrington, Kerry Maulden, and Clarence Horton. Taken into the Key Club were Kerry Maulden, Alex Viola, Jerry Moss, George Noel, Clarence Horton, and Don Honeycutt. The Quill and Scroll inducted Carole Harrington, Clarence Horton, Kaye Boyd and Sandra Ivey for their journalistic work. For their accomplishments in dramatics, the National Thespian Society tapped Jean Avant, Nancy Koontz, R. W. Williams, Becky Hodgins, Alex Viola, Jimmy Beck, and Linda McKnight.

This was the year that we received our long-desired class rings and that wonderful Washington trip! How we looked forward to it and how we enjoyed every splendid moment! Those joyous, exciting times will always remain in our memories.

Next on our agenda was the Junior-Senior. The Co-Chairmen, Carole Harrington and Ettie Ruth Hastings, directed the preparations for this dance with the theme of "Deep Purple." It was another dream fulfilled.

As another year drew to a close, officers for the following year were elected. Larry Neal was elected Student Government President and R. W. Williams as Vice-President. Clarence Horton and Sandra Ivey were selected the editors of the Brown Highlights and the ALBROKAN. Voted to stimulate our school spirit were our Cheerleaders, Larry Cauble, Chief; Glenna Goodson; Ettie Ruth Hastings; and Brenda Beaver.

Helping the seniors to graduate were the Commencement Marshals: Chief, Linda Jo Sloop; George Noel; Jane Wilson; Kerry Maulden; Larry Neal; Clarence Horton; Norma Sloop; Doris McDonald; Richard Sellers; Carole Harrington; R. W. Williams; Duane Childers; and Carol Taylor. Ours was the first class to have so many male Marshals.

We realized that this coming year was to be our last in high school; that we were doing many things for the last time; that soon the time was coming when we would no longer be A. L.

Brown High School students, but alumni. We resolved to work harder this year to make up for those times when we might have been a little lax. This year was to be our greatest yet, as we took our places as dignified, sophisticated seniors. Guiding us through our last year was Miss Gray. Our officers worked hard to make ours the best class ever. Kerry Maulden served as President, Richard Sellers as Vice-President, Donaline Jordan as Secretary, Barry Bostian as Treasurer, Allen Wilson as Chaplain, Carole Harrington as Social Chairman, Jane Wilson and Don Honeycutt as our Council members for the third year, and Linda Jo Sloop as Historian.

We chose as our class motto "Ending dreams; beginning reality." Our colors were red and silver, with a red rose as our flower. We picked two redheads for our mascots, Nancy Falls and Johnny Cauble.

The Key Club took in Rodney Armstrong, Richard Sellers, and Allen Wilson, who transferred from LaGrange, Georgia, where he was Vice-President.

Donaline Jordan represented our school in the Carrousel Parade in Charlotte. She won in the local parade and was crowned "Miss Merry Christmas." Brenda Beaver reigned over the Homecoming festivities. The senior class unanimously elected Jane Wilson "Miss High Miss," an honor based on character, scholarship, leadership, and personality.

Sports played an important role in our school life. The Co-Captains of the football team were Larry Neal, Jerry Moss, and Don Goodnight. The Lug Leazer award was presented to Don Goodnight.

Louise Cashion and La Vaughn Rodgers won first and second places, respectively, in the Student Government chocolate sale. We all helped with this fund to raise money for a new juke box and scholarships.

As the year progressed, the National Honor Society, the Key Club, the National Thespian Society, and the Quill and Scroll accepted new members.

The last half of our senior year was filled with the Senior-Junior, the senior class play, the Junior-Senior, Senior Day, choosing the class gift, the many class meetings, rehearsals, the baccalaureate sermon, class night, and of course, to top it all, graduation.

We had many dreams as we entered high school. Amid laughter and tears, they were either fulfilled or shattered. Perhaps a dream of accomplishment was satisfied, or perhaps not. Now at graduation, we know that to achieve anything worthwhile, dreams must be coupled with work. We leave behind our high school days to go forth into new ways of life; we are "ending dreams; beginning reality."

LINDA JO SLOOP, Historian

Miss Hi Miss

JANE WILSON

The Senior Class chose Miss Jane Wilson as Miss Hi Miss on the basis of leadership, scholarship, character, and personality. She was accepted by acclamation, setting a precedent at A. L. Brown High School. Being a guest of Winthrop College in Rock Hill, South Carolina, Jane received recognition in a special edition of "The Johnsonian," Winthrop's school newspaper.

Miss Brown Hi

DONALINE JORDAN

For her beauty, poise, and personality, Miss Donaline Jordan was chosen Miss Brown Hi by the Senior Class. Donaline represented Kannapolis in the Charlotte Carrousel and in the Kannapolis and Concord parades.

She was selected as Miss Merry Christmas by the Merchant's Association.

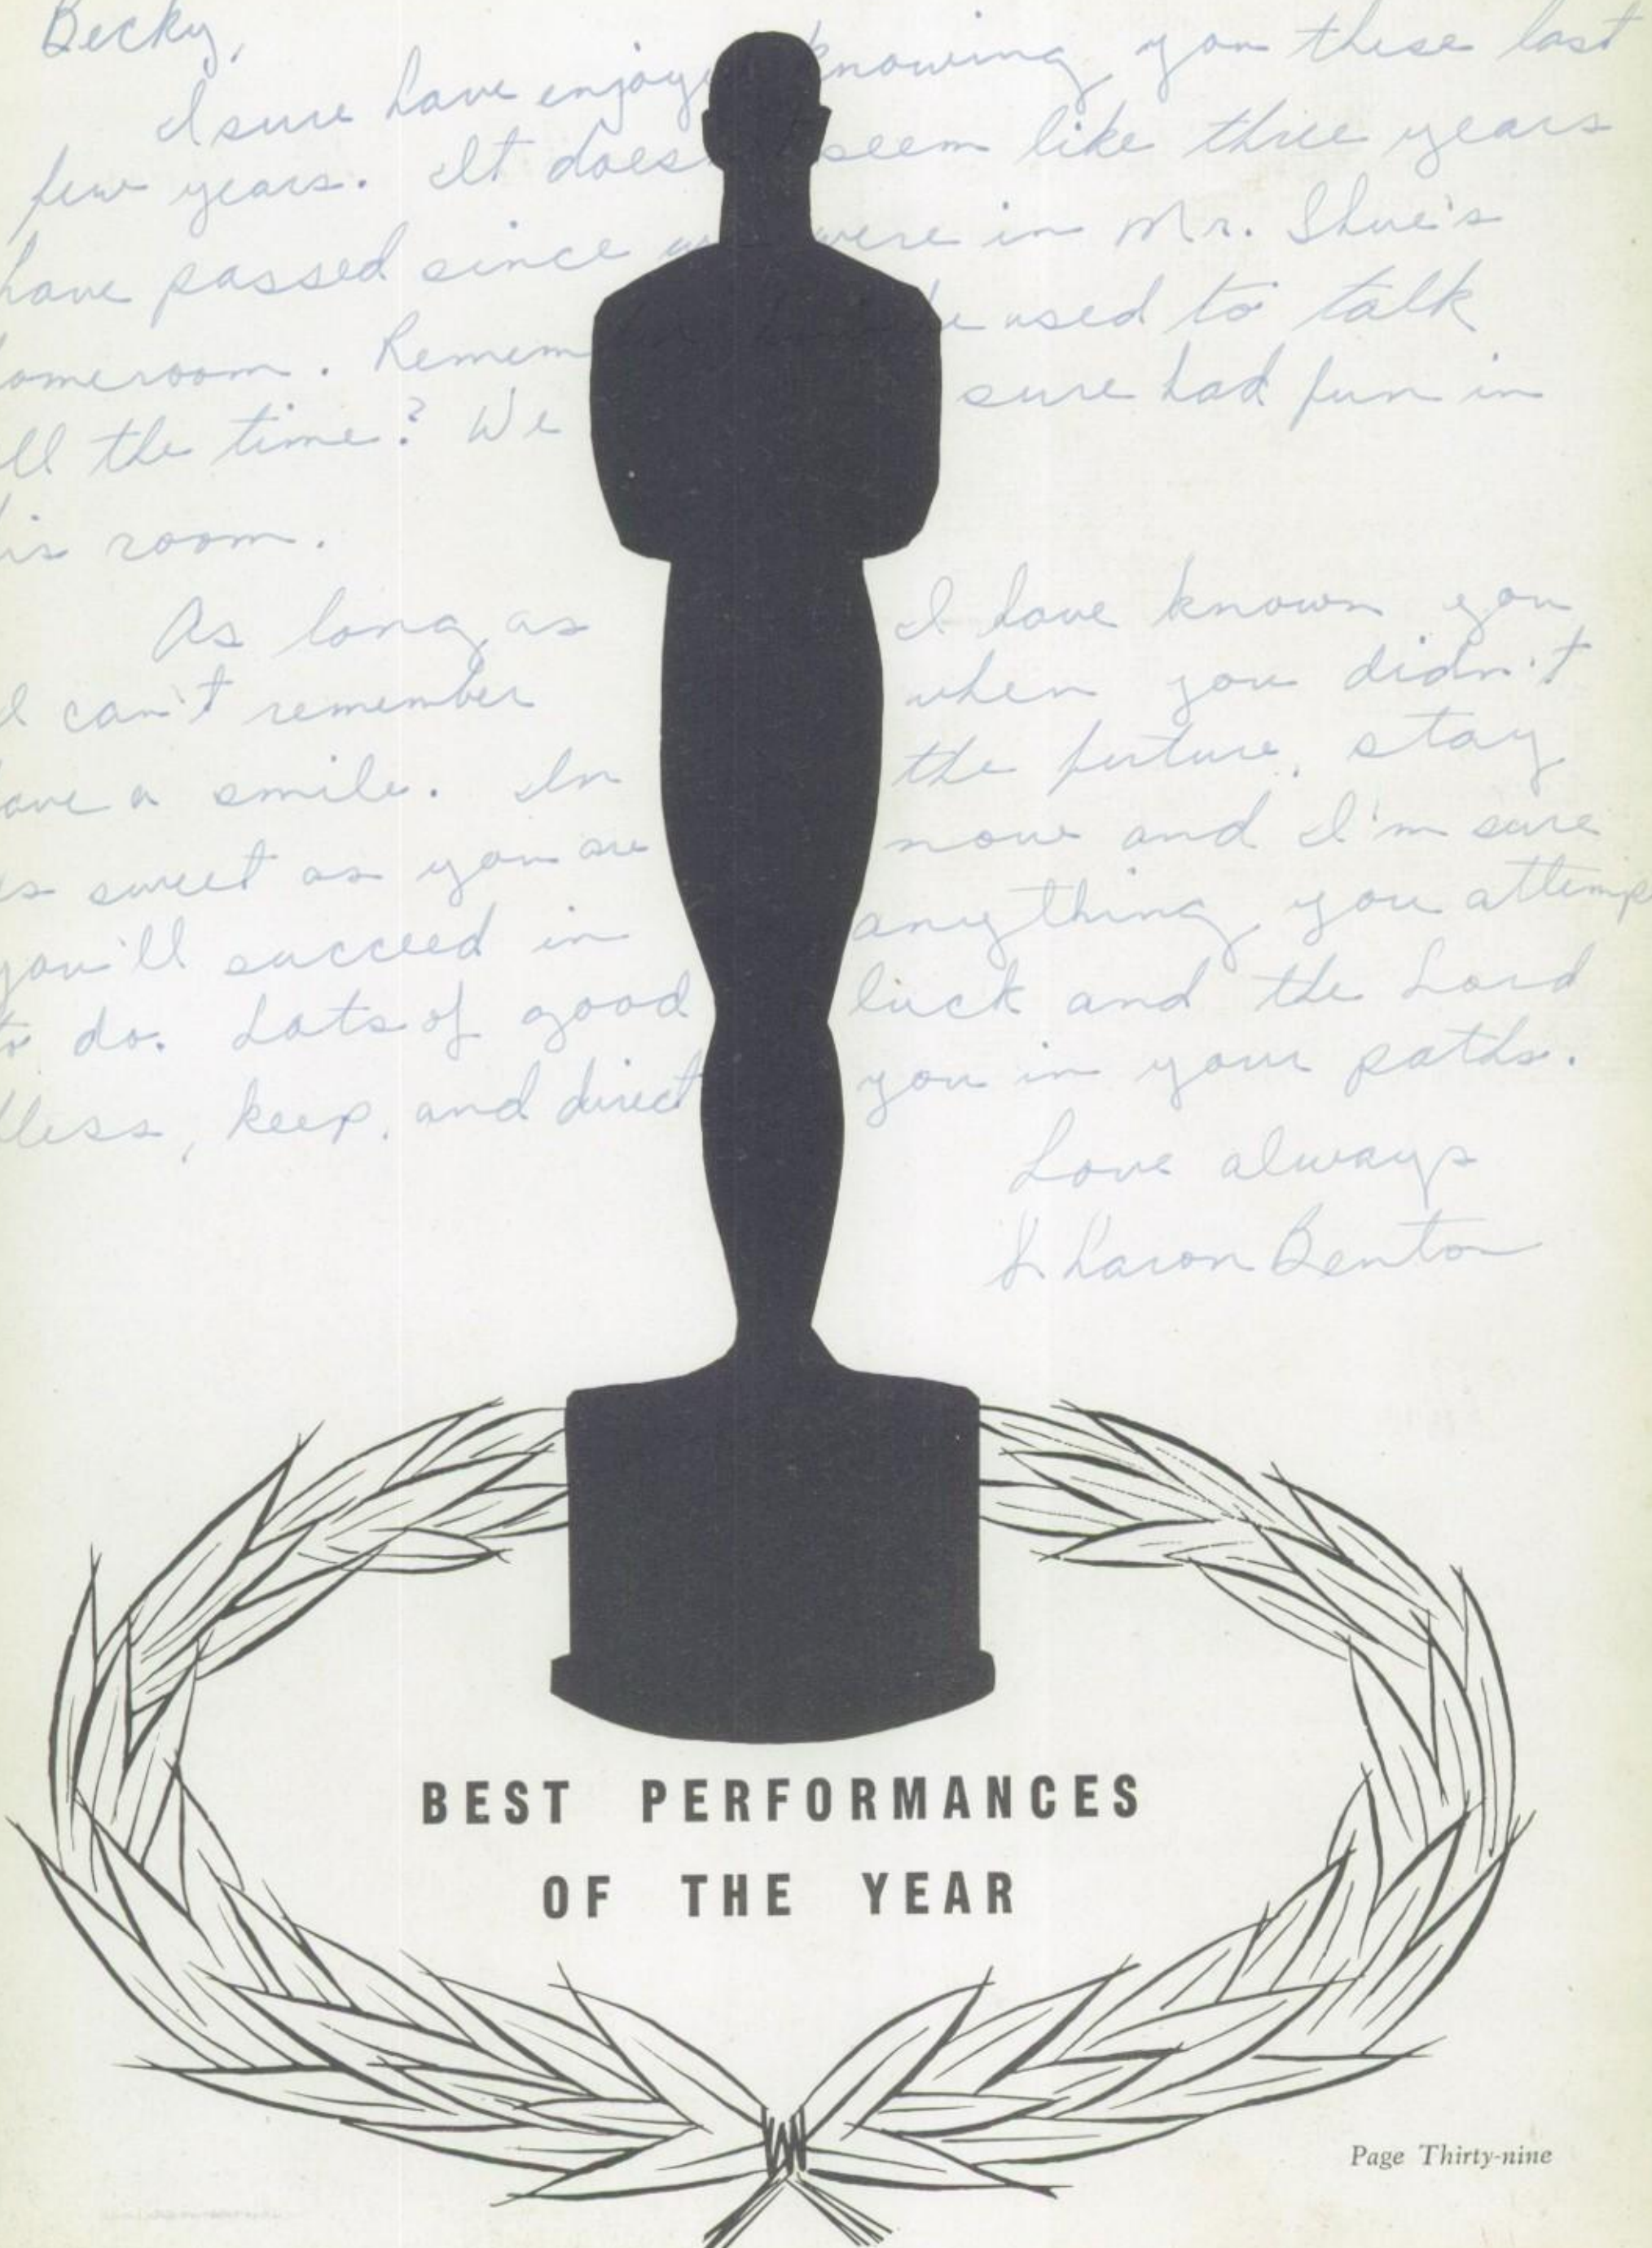

Becky,

I sure have enjoyed knowing you these last few years. It does seem like three years have passed since we were in Mr. Shue's homeroom. Remember we used to talk all the time? We sure had fun in his room.

As long as I can't remember have a smile. In as sweet as you are you'll succeed in to do. Lots of good bless, keep, and direct

I have known you when you didn't the future, stay now and I'm sure anything you attempt luck and the Lord you in your paths.

Love always
L. Aaron Benton

ENGLISH

"ALL THE WORLD is a stage . . ." English IV students will be becoming acquainted with this philosophy as they study the works of Shakespeare and many others. Their studies will also include the Anglo-Saxon Era and the works of Chaucer whose Canterbury Tales are quite familiar to all seniors.

WHY STUDY ENGLISH is a fact these industrious sophomores will be discovering as they explore their English In Action books. Literature heads their agenda for the second semester.

THEY'RE REALLY NOT that quiet, because when they begin their oratoricals that's when the action begins. Two years old now, this additional course to Brown High School's curriculum has won its place in many speech lovers' hearts.

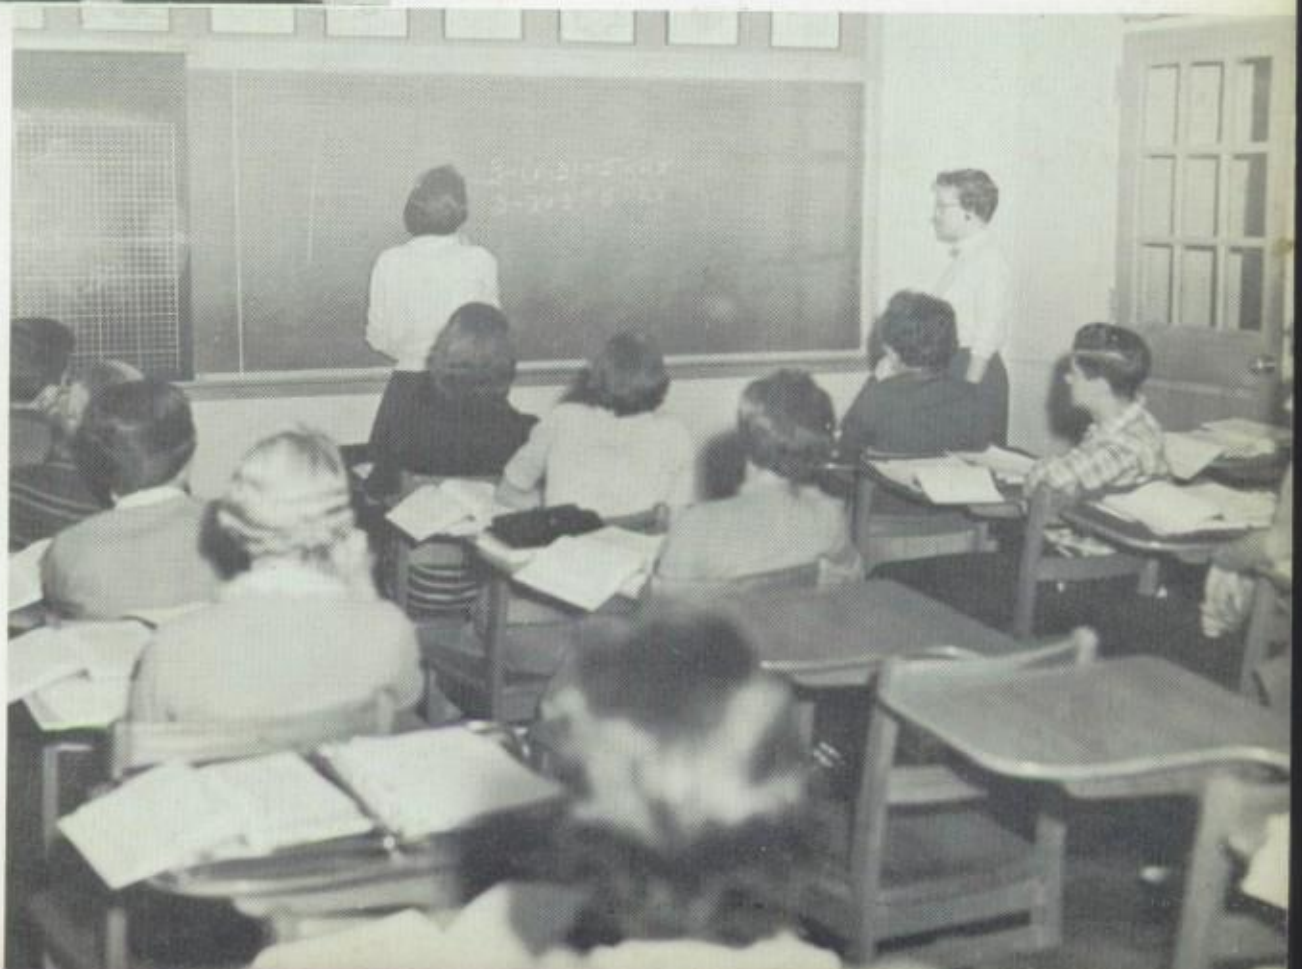

MATH

NOW LET ME show you appears to be the general idea in this typical Senior Math class. At the moment, these students are preoccupied with Solid Geometry. Other courses which they will take later in the year are Plane Trigonometry and Advanced Algebra.

DON'T BE A SQUARE . . . use all the right angles. This is precisely what these Geometry students are doing. Studying this course helps them to think and reason logically. In this mixed-up world you have got to be on the ball, so they've found.

GEE WHIZ, is this right? These Algebra II students soon learn the answer to this question. A college requirement, Algebra I and II can prove to be very fascinating topics of study.

HISTORY

OUR WORLD IS CHANGING is certain as Mrs. Miller is pointing out to her government students. To keep ahead in the news of our country and other countries requires a bit of work for these students. They seem to be quite interested in their subject, though.

LIFE IN the Middle Ages as compared to now is somewhat a revolution. The history students find that their own country's history is very interesting as they study about their heritage.

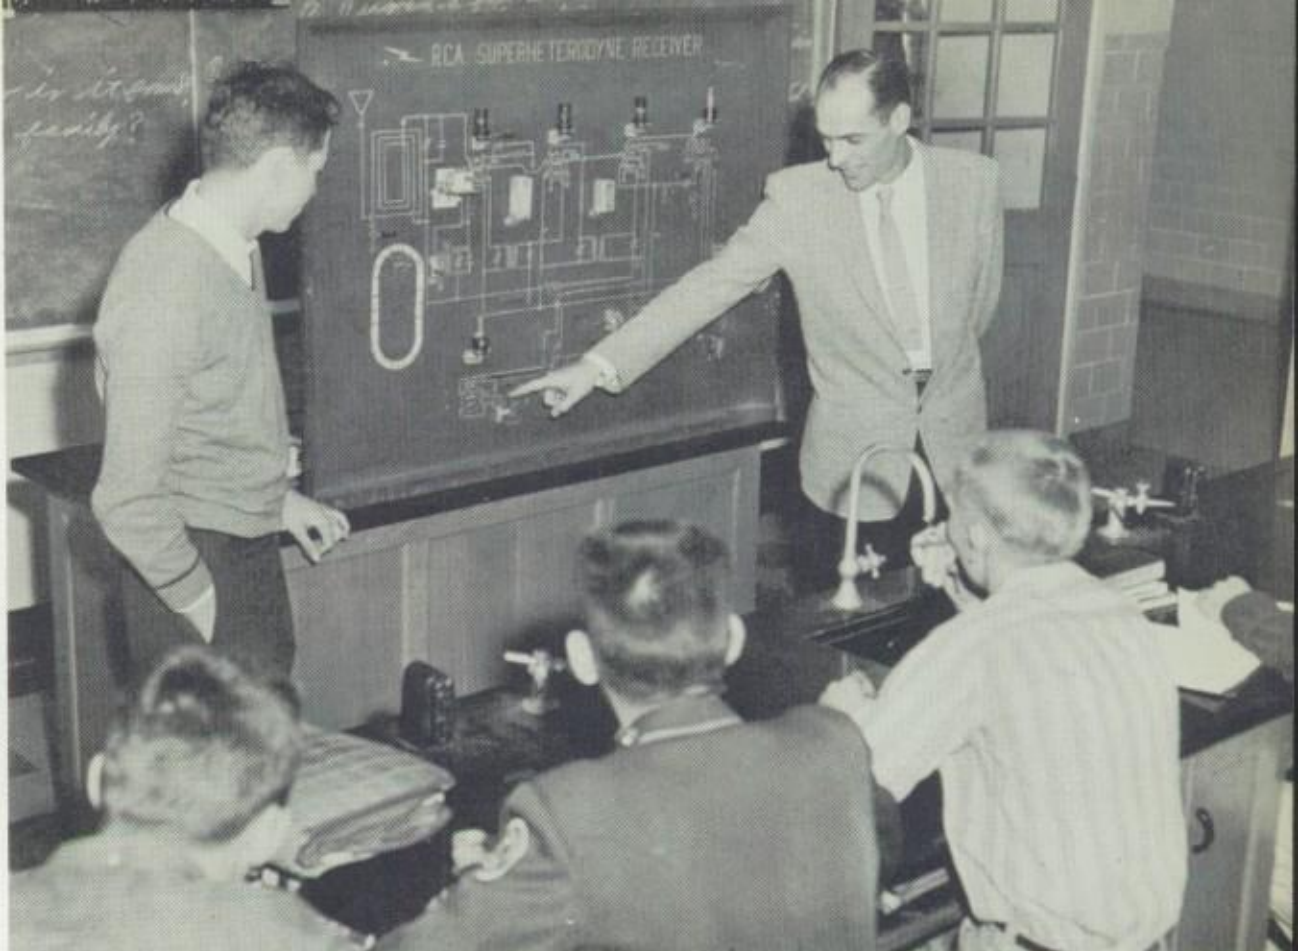

AROUND THE WORLD is where these History I students go as they study world history. Their study includes the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World from the Hanging Gardens of Babylon to the Colossus of Rhodes.

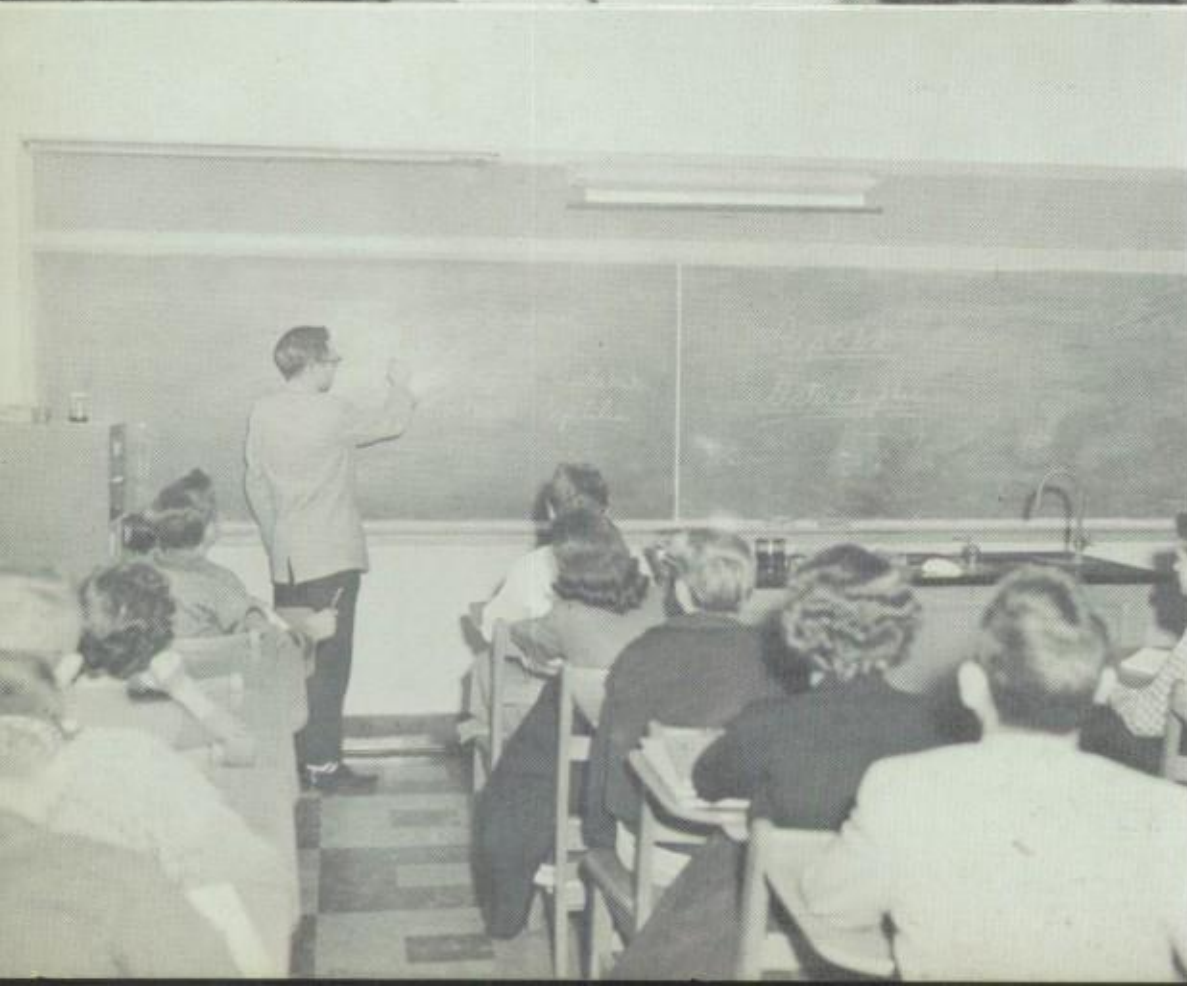

SCIENCE

FUTURE EINSTEINS? That must be a pretty good idea if it works. Physics is a must for senior students who plan to enter any scientific or engineering field. Hard work is the prime requirement for this course. Students build radios as this above as part of their study.

WHAT DO WE HAVE HERE?

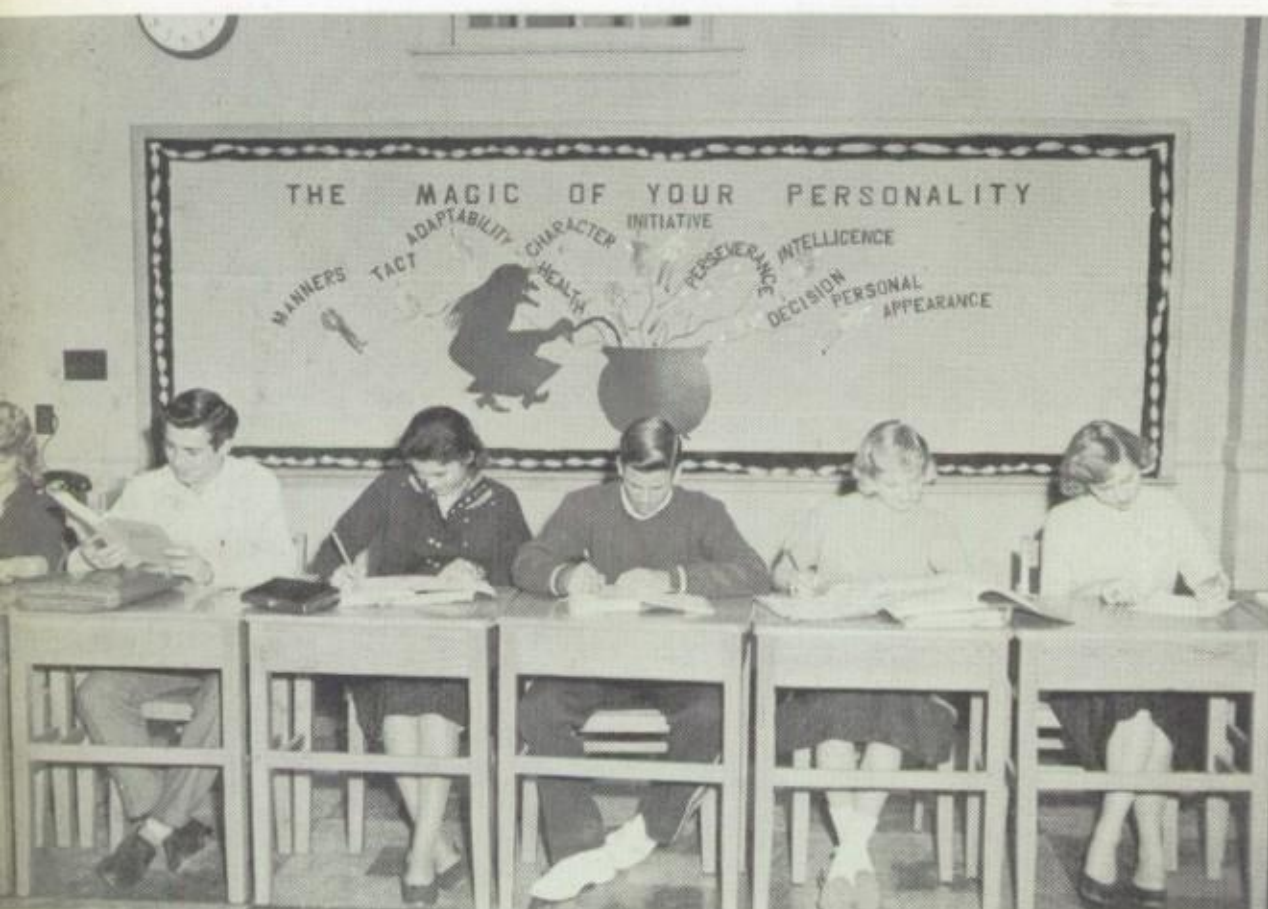

The answer, of course, as these general science'ers well know are weights. They can be rather amazing. Since the students make small heaters of their own, perhaps they can start a business.

NOT QUITE A foreign language class . . . but as interesting so these sophomores will tell you. Their studies include the many different phylums and classes of animals in biology. Also in their class comes the dissecting of such little creatures as the frogs, etc. . . . very entertaining!

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

And around we go seems to be the general idea. Industrial Arts is a course that does require much mechanical drawing, electrical work, and shop math, along with technical films. Therefore, these students plan to be really prepared for anything along this line of work.

D. E.

DO YOU HAVE this Black Magic? If you do you're well on your way to success in the business world. Experiencing the responsibilities that go along with a job is a unique way, as these students will tell you, to prepare themselves for future accomplishments.

D. O.

There they are . . . boys who have applied themselves and put their study into good practice. Boys in this course must be at least sixteen years old. When they set out to do a job, they believe in doing it well.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

BUSY BANKERS . . . They may own a bank of their own someday; who knows? At the present, though, they have acquired some very valuable experience in this type work, and their help has been quite a contribution to Brown High.

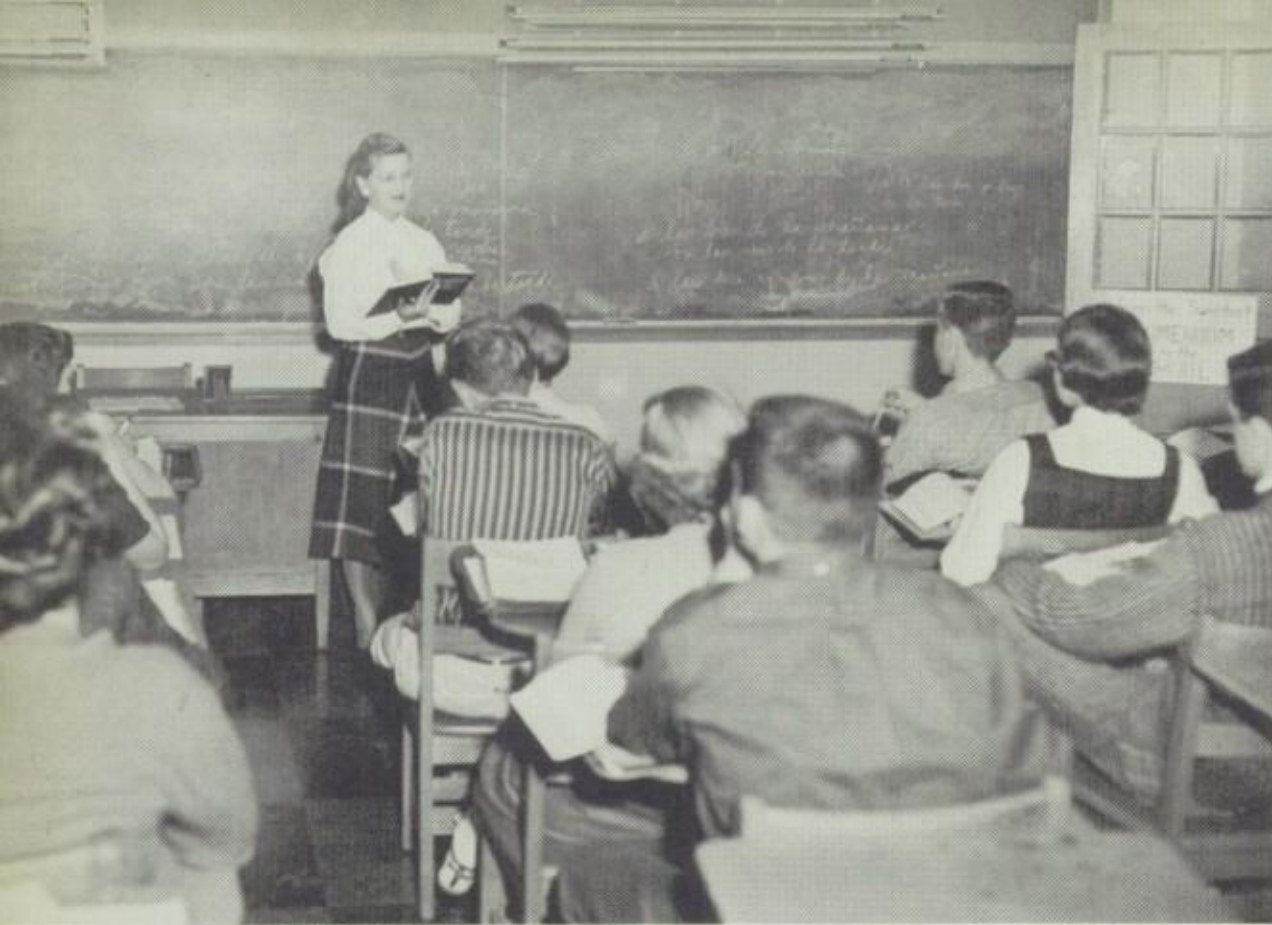

Here we have some mighty needed and helpful workers in no other form than the duplicating department. This is the place those fatal catastrophes, known as tests, originate. The duplicating department mimeographs morning announcement sheets, tests and other material.

PROFESSIONALS? . . . almost. These students are quite informed in this type of work after one year of study. Typing I and II prepares a student for any kind of office work. Bookkeeping and shorthand are also other commercial courses offered.

LANGUAGES

"SI, SI senora," could be the answer a Spanish student is giving Mrs. Caldwell as they study the language of the "South of the Border" people. They can't help but wish they were there.

"PARLEZ VOUS FRANCAIS?" If you do then we're off to the enchanting country of France to none other than gay Paree! Not only do French students study the language, but they also have French pen-pals with whom they correspond.

"ALL ROME is divided into three parts" is a phrase from the much famous, as the Latin scholars will tell you, "Caesar's Gallic Wars." They appear quite intent on their study, and who wouldn't be? After all, it is said that Latin isn't really a dead language!

HOME ECONOMICS

BUSY LITTLE HOME-MAKERS are these young ladies, and it better be good or OOPS goes the grade. Besides learning to be excellent cooks they also become expert seamstresses and house cleaners.

ART

SH-SH . . . Artists at work, and the Art Department does give quite a few of these talented creatures. Not only do they give of their time and talent to the school, but they learn many different tricks-of-the-trade and some mighty helpful hints.

SHOP

These boys appear to be running their own show, and it looks as though they're not doing such a bad job of it. Sheet metal is the main material used along with a little know-how, and we've got something.

BIBLE

Certainly the Bible class is one in which you can learn to be thankful along with the sincere meaning of the Thanksgiving Season. The students enjoy their subject very much, not failing to mention its many rewards.

ORIENTATION

AS SOPHOMORES these new classmen learn the value of the saying, "Slow down, and Live." This does make them STOP and think of courtesy as they begin to take the wheel. Many other interesting and helpful topics are brought up in these classes throughout the year.

GUIDANCE ASSISTANTS

CAFETERIA

FIFTH PERIOD and the mad rush begins at the sound of a bell. Where's everybody going in such a hurry? Of course, it's to eat, so a bee-line is made for the school cafeteria. Boy, they certainly seem to be enjoying their feasts, and with those empty stomachs to feed, down it goes.

The A. L. Brown High School Band of Kannapolis, North Carolina, under the direction of HARVEY TURNER, presents . . . The stirring drums can be heard in the distance, and then Mr. Turner steps out for a well-earned bow. Next comes DON DANIEL, drum major, who has led the band this 1957-58 school year and has done a superb job. The majorettes and sponsors receive a big ovation as they make their appearance. Then, the heart of it all, the band itself, having achieved wide-spread recognition, makes its entry, and cheers roll from every section.

We have a marvelous band, not only in our own opinions, but in many others. At Duke University on band day last year, our band won many compliments for themselves. They add to the spirit of the football games and pep meetings with their fine playing.

M I X E D C H O R U S

From another musical phase of our school comes the Mixed Chorus, which is composed of approximately seventy voices. The Mixed Chorus has presented music for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter programs. Miss Stallings is the leader of the group, and she has done a wonderful job. Assisting her has been the Mixed Chorus pianist, Beverly Mauldin.

DRAMATICS

"Webb" Family

"Aw Ma, I gotta know all about Canada by ten o'clock," says "Wally Webb" (Tommy Overcash) to an irate "Mother Webb" (Willa Jackson) who doesn't appreciate geography books at the breakfast table. Seated in the center is "Emily Webb," "Wally's" older sister (Jean Price).

"Gibbs" Family

"Do you know what I love most in the world? Do you? MONEY!," exclaims the smallest member of the "Gibbs" family, "Rebecca" (Betty Deal). Playing "Mrs. Gibbs" is Sandra Miller. Richard Sellers sits in the center of the dinner table as "George Gibbs."

"Good afternoon, ladies," says the lovable "Stage Manager" played by Tommy Allen, as he visits with two housewives, Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Webb (Sandra Miller and Willa Jackson).

"Oh George, they're so expensive," replies "Emily" to "George's" suggestion that she order a strawberry phosphate (Jean Price and Richard Sellers).

Becky.

It has been a pleasure knowing you all the many years that I have. you are a real sweet girl.
Best of luck with you meads.

Love,
Sonia

The Josephus Daniels chapter of Quill and Scroll at Brown High honors high school journalists. It exists as an honorary international organization and inducts members on the basis of scholarship, character, and outstanding achievement in the field of journalism, both editorial and business.

The Alpha Chi Sigma chapter of the National Honor Society at Brown High recognizes those students excelling in scholarship, leadership, service and character. Juniors and seniors are tapped into the club annually while sophomores are taken in on probation.

PARADE OF STARS....

COACHES

Outstanding as coaches at Brown High this year were Ed Edmiston, Dan Hamrick, and Vic Caldwell. Under their leadership and guidance, the 1957-58 season was one of the best for sports at Brown.

Edmiston leads the football and girls' basketball teams and is also assistant baseball coach. Hamrick is the assistant football coach and also heads the boys' basketball and baseball teams.

Caldwell coaches the Junior Varsity teams and is turning out future Varsity players.

Other duties than those of coaching are also required of the coaches. Mr. Edmiston is the physical education teacher at Cannon Junior High. Mr. Hamrick is the driver's education director and general science teacher at Brown and also the dean of boys. Coach Caldwell teaches at Cannon Junior High.

Selected on the basis of outstanding ability and performance on the gridiron were this year's Little Wonder Co-Captains, Jerry Moss, Larry Neal, and Don Goodnight. Under the leadership of Coaches Edmiston and Hamrick, the Little Wonders turned in a stellar performance to wind up the season with a 6-2-2 record. Surprising to opponents was their change and adeptness in the single wing used alternately with the regular T-formation.

Brown High seems almost sure of another championship basketball team for the 1958 season. They have won their first five basketball games to put them on top in the South Piedmont Conference race. Two of their toughest rivals, Concord and Landis, have already been beaten.

With a wide-spread scoring ability and a hustling defense capable of bottling up their opponents at crucial moments in the game, the Wonders are favored to go all the way, turning aside all comers.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

In the 1957-58 season, the Wonderettes were rated as the top team in the Southern Piedmont Conference. Having lost only four girls via graduation, the team was in high hopes for a championship as the ALBROKAN went to press.

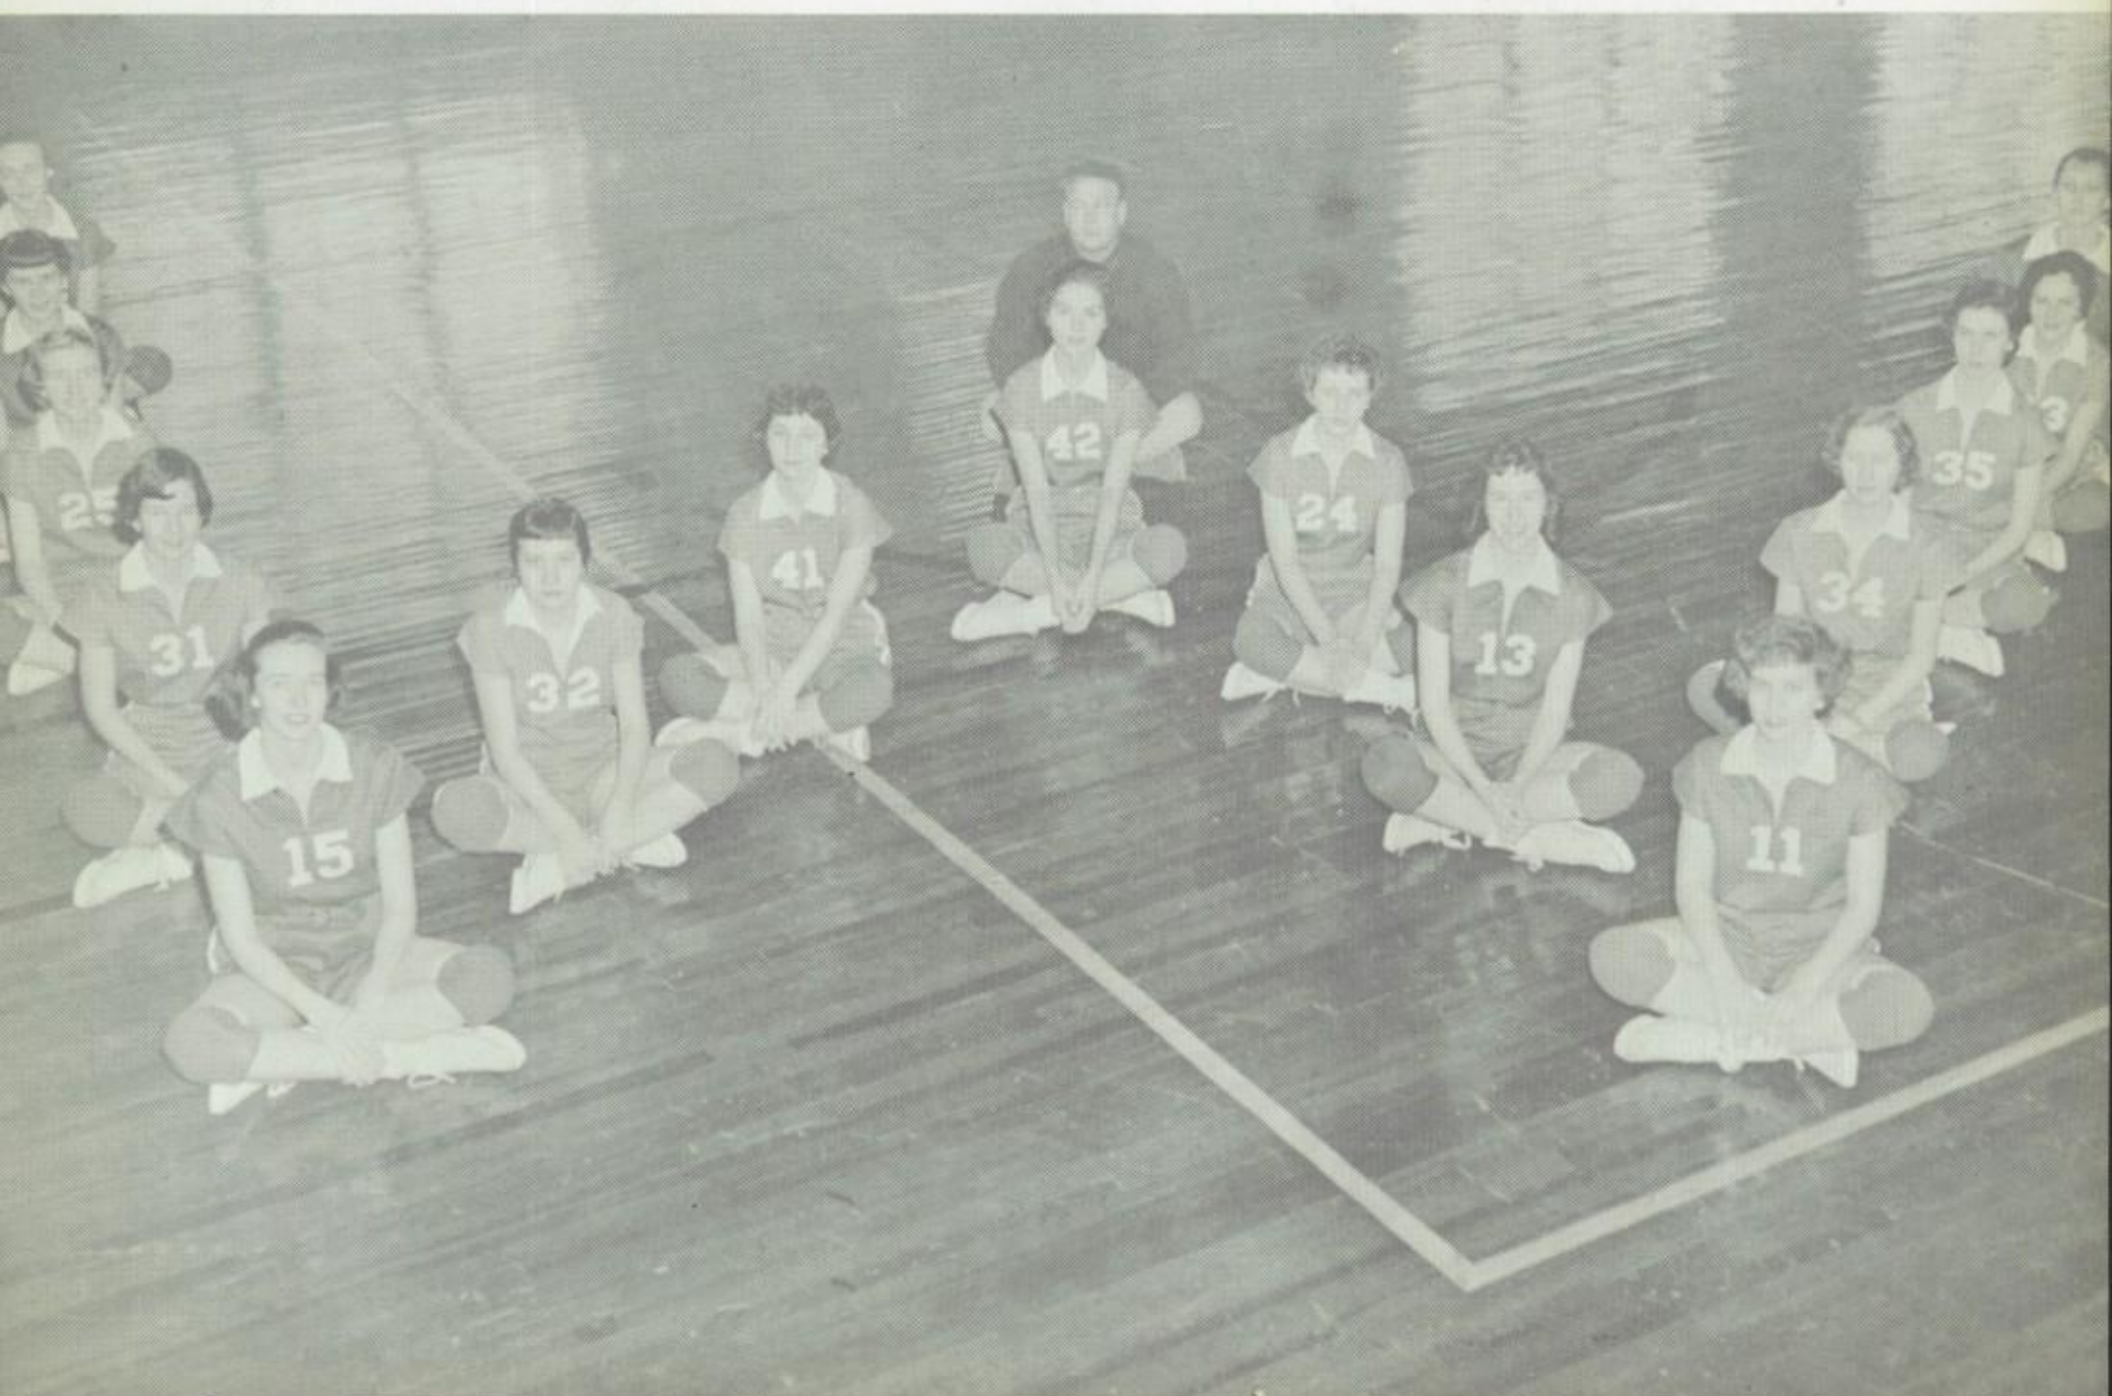

With hard work and the guiding hand of Coach Ed Edmiston, the team thus far has a 7-win, 0-loss record. The offensive efforts of Jane Bullock, Brenda Thompson, and Mildred Alexander, combined with the able defensive work of Lib Duncan, Carol Scarboro, and Vicki Woodard have made Brown High proud of the Wonderettes.

Seniors Phyllis Hollar and Brenda Thompson served as Co-Captains. This is their last year, but well-qualified girls are left to fill the vacancies.

I have enjoyed being in your study hall this year. Remember all of our good times in the library and your troubles with Miss Wilburn, don't worry her too much next year. You are a cute and sweet girl, stay that way and you will have many friends. Best of luck with R.B. May God bless you always.

Love ya,
Billie

Becky,

I have enjoyed being in your study hall this year. May we always remain friends throughout the years. Don't "work" too hard next year, and good luck in the future.

Love ya,
Millie

Bucky,

I have really enjoyed being in some of the classes with you. But always remember study hall and the boy in ~~the~~ row and ~~the~~ seat.

Loads of Luck
Barbara Davis

Autographs

Becky,

I like to be with you and, believe it or not, to just watch you because you are so interesting, you know, original. You're one of my unforgettable characters. Lots of luck and love.

Sandra Miller

Becky,

We have had loads of fun this year together, especially in the library. ^{HH} I have really enjoyed knowing and being friends with you this year and I want to wish you the best of everything in life.

Love.

Fuller

P.S. I don't meet you in heaven, hand to hand I'll meet you in hell face to face.

Becky,

I have really enjoyed knowing you this year. We have had loads of fun talking about people in our third period study hall, may you have the best that life has to offer.

See ya next year.

Love sp.

Joyce B.

(Reserved)

Becky,

I have enjoyed knowing you for the past 2 years. You are a sweet and nice girl. Well, Becky here starts the story of the Black boys. They are not worth liking so much. I wish you a lot of luck with Ray, maybe one of these days they will come to there senses, well if they have any. Maybe one of these days we will be lucky enough to get to date them, anyway we can still dream and wish. Well that is all that I can say about them. I wish you a lot of success in the future. I hope next year that we will get in some classes together, and give the teachers ----- (ha. ha)
Good Luck and God Bless You.
